

संस्कृति मंत्रालय
MINISTRY OF CULTURE

To,
Prof. Sunil Dhingra,
Director,
UIET, Kurukshetra University,
Kurukshetra, Haryana.

* Shalini Agarwal Incharge to circulate all FIS
* Depth/Deepak for website
* Nohri Bussal.

8/11/22

Dear Sir,

PAUSE

With great pleasure, as a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the World Forum for Art and Culture cordially invites you to be a part of Jhankriti 2022, India's first-ever Virtual Classical Arts Competition. It's an incredible opportunity to perform on a world-class platform and reach out to a global audience. The registration is FREE and art enthusiasts can participate from any part of the globe. An opportunity to showcase talent, interact and learn from the legends of the respective fields, and win the coveted Upadhis (Prizes).

The World Forum for Art & Culture has been conceived by The Art of Living, a non-profit organization founded by the world-renowned humanitarian and spiritual leader Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankarji. The organization has brought people of different cultures, religions, and nationalities together with performances on massive scales. A recent example includes the 2016 World Culture Festival where 2.8 Million+ Artists from all over the world came together to celebrate and dream of a more peaceful world.

Below are a few key details to note:

- The last date of registration for the first round is 15th August 2022.
- The competition will be held virtually and invites participants of 3 broad age categories: below 8 years, 8-16 years, and 17-25 years.
- Cash prizes (Upadhis) worth up to 21 Lakhs.
- Get All the details here: jhankriti.org/

We, at WFAC, welcome all the creative talent out there with wide arms and open hearts, to join in and make this very first virtual classical competition of the nation, an iconic one to remember for many years to come.

Looking forward to seeing your institutes' entries soon.

Let the talent shine!

Warmth,
Madhu Deep Singh
Team WFAC